STORIES SHARED FOR OUR RECORDS

Billie Warren told a story of how Novie Sue and Reuben S. Hart, Sr. always came up, somehow, with money for school. They were sitting outside trying to figure out what they were going to do to come up with the necessary money for that particular year. They were at their whits end when they saw a man riding his horse coming down a long hill in their direction. The man was bringing money to Mr. Hart that he had loaned him a while ago. Mr. Hart had told the man to pay him whenever he could and the timing was perfect. Once again Mr. & Mrs. Hart had come through.

Aunt Mary R. Hart (Garland's wife) told us that Sunday morning breakfast was always prepared by Novie Sue & Mr. Hart alone. They wanted no one else in the kitchen as this was their time to discuss whatever they discussed privately.

Max told of a visit he & Gail and their family had with Hettie & Jenkins Hart. They all spent the night at Jenkins home and upon waking Hettie told Max that she fixed breakfast only once and that if he and his family wanted anything there it was and fix it yourself. Hettie made her breakfast at 5:00 AM.
